

studio school easel society

the easel society

As an easel supports a painting, Easel Society members support the Studio School through their participation in its programs and through the financial support that annual dues and gifts provide.

Membership is offered to current and former students, their families and other community members. Corporate Memberships are available. The Easel Society also oversees a program of Annual and One-time Gifts from supporters of the arts to The Studio School.

Easel Society members receive advance notice of events and shows, discounted rates on selected programs, a newsletter and all other mailings. Those who help underwrite special events are recognized in publicity about that event.

tax-deductible.

The Studio School is a nonprofit organization with 501.c.3 tax-exempt status. Contributors will receive end of the year summaries for their records.
